ITALY FORGETS, SAVES AUSTRIA.
Chief Support of Her Traditional Enemy.
Consists in Succoring the Starving.
Welcoming Destitute Women and Children.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
ROME, Dec. 28. (Via Paris, 28.)—Italy has forgotten the traditional enmity which has existed between the two nations since the days of Napoleon. The Italian government has decided to support Austria in her present plight. The Italian Red Cross has been ordered to send food and clothing to the starving Austrians. The Italian government has also decided to welcome destitute women and children from Austria. The Italian government has also decided to support Austria in her present plight. JAPS DIVIDED ON SIBERIA.
Some for Opposing Bolshevism Alone, Others for Quick Withdrawal.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Public opinion in Japan on dispatching reinforcements to Siberia is divided, according to advice from Tokyo today, quoting the Japanese press.
According to the Asahi, Gen. Tanaka, Minister of War, and his supporters are of the opinion that "peace in Siberia must be maintained by Japan. If it is not, it will be a disaster to the Japanese people." The Asahi also states that the Japanese government is of the opinion that the Japanese should be limited to the guarding of the railways. Under the present policy, it would be inadvisable for Japan to hold the present policy, and it would be desirable to effect the withdrawal of the troops from Siberia by leaving small contingents at such places as Vladivostok, for the protection of Japanese interests.
"Secondly, the task of reconstruction of Russia by the anti-Bolshevik forces is a long and arduous task, and there is even talk in Europe of concluding peace with the Bolsheviks. For this reason, if Japan adds to the protection of Siberia east of the Baikal she must be prepared to station her troops for quite a long time. However, the spread of ideas, Bolshevism or otherwise, can hardly be stemmed by means of military force."

James Gordon Bennett could not foresee what happened
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
UNDER his will the late James Gordon Bennett, wealthy owner of the New York Herald, appointed his personal friend, James Stillman, an executor of his estate. Mr. Stillman died just 60 days before Mr. Bennett himself had passed on, without having made a change in his will.
Mr. Stillman had appointed Mr. George Sterling, a well known lawyer, as executor of his estate. Before Mr. Sterling could begin work, however, he died suddenly.
Mr. Sterling had appointed his friend, Mr. James Bloss, New York banker, as his personal executor. But Mr. Bloss died within three months after Mr. Sterling's passing.
The combined estates of these four men who died within the space of five months amounted to about 75 million dollars. The final settlements of their estates were fraught with innumerable complications and difficulties.
It isn't a question of the trustworthiness of your friend. Individual executors, whoever they are, may not survive—that fact is proven by the foregoing series of incidents. The one way to absolutely insure the carrying out of your wishes is to appoint a strong corporate executor whose existence is continuous, like the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—United States Marshal Edward J. Connelley today arrested four men on federal warrants, two charging violation of the War-time Prohibition Act and two illegal transportation of liquor from State to State. The arrests resulted from his investigation into the deaths of more than fifty persons in this section since Christmas from drinking wood alcohol contained in a mixture sold as whisky.
Four more deaths had resulted since early today from alcoholic poisoning, three in Holyoke and one in Chicago, bringing the total for the Connecticut Valley, not including Hartford, to fifty-two, divided as follows:
Holyoke, 2; Springfield, 4, including 1 woman; Chicopee, 1; and Thompsonville, 1.
Those arrested today are John Nantawicki of Chicopee and Harry Shapiro of Springfield, truck drivers, charged with bringing the liquor into the valley; Arthur Anderson and John W. Staryk, both of Holyoke, charged with violation of the War-time Prohibition Act. They will be arraigned tomorrow. All were released under $500 bonds.
Marshal Alfred Connelley of the Chicago police left today for New Haven with warrants charging murder against four men who have been arrested there. The warrants were sworn out, the police say, on information given by Mr. Baker.

GUilty OF SELLING GERMANS WAR GOODS.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
MAYENCE, Thursday, Dec. 27 (Delayed).—The trial of seventeen persons, army officers and civilians, in connection with the sale to Germany of goods from the American war stocks purchased by the government, ended yesterday, with the conviction of all but one of the prisoners. The accused included a captain, a first lieutenant, three second lieutenants, a gunner, two German who had rather than face trial, and nine civilians, one of them an American named Tepmann. The court-martial hearing the case found all of the accused guilty, with the exception of one second lieutenant, who was acquitted.
Tepmann was sentenced to two years' imprisonment and was fined 100 marks. The officers, who were civilians, were sentenced to varying terms of imprisonment, ranging from two years to five months.
The civilians also received prison sentences of varying length, with fines of from one to 5000 marks. The chief charge against the officers was that of accepting commissions to allow care of goods to pass through to Germany, while the civilians were charged with selling the goods.

BUYING BEST WOOLEN BOOSTS SUIT PRICES.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
BOSTON, Dec. 28.—Public insistence upon cloth made from fine wools is a large factor in present high prices of clothing, according to William Wood, president of the American Woolen Company. Mr. Wood, who recently charged some of the merchants with offering demanding excessive prices for necessities, and were in the habit of raising prices with every increase in wages in the company's mills here, issued a statement tonight in response to a request for the reason upon the high cost of clothing.
"If our people would consent," was his conclusion, "to wear good substantial, durable clothes made of the coarser wools, clothing could be purchased at considerably lower prices than those which prevail."
His statement in part said: "It is generally thought that the cost of cloth is the controlling factor in the cost of clothing, but the fact is that the cloth cost is less than half the cost of a completed suit."
"In the last few years the price of cloth in the ordinary suit of clothes has advanced no more, indeed, has advanced a little less, showing an increase in the cost of making of 15 to 20 per cent."
"The 1919 cost of making this suit is $14.47. The corresponding cost in 1914 was $14.88, showing an increase in the cost of making of 2.8 per cent."
"People discriminate." Mr. Wood said. "They figure that cloth contributes slightly less than labor and other materials to the increased cost of clothing. Therefore, in your question why prices of clothing continue so high throughout the country, the reply is because the cost of labor and cloth and other materials that go into clothing continue so high."
After declaring there is a shortage of cloth and clothing throughout the world, which "always means high prices," and that "almost every material and every process involved in manufacturing clothing has to pay a heavy tax, both State and Federal," Mr. Wood continued:
"In a measure during the war, and to a greater extent since, there has developed a curious and insatiable demand for cloth made from the finer and more expensive wools. People will no longer buy cloth made of the coarser and consequently cheaper grades, although clothing made from these wools is both serviceable and sound."
"We recently made up a sample of cloth in which coarse wool was used in the warp only. The appearance of the sample was but slightly different from that made of fine wools. Before the war it would have sold readily, but we were absolutely unable to put it on the market."

PARIS TO SHUT CAFES EARLY TO AVOID ROWS.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PARIS, Dec. 27.—Efforts are being made by the prefect of the Seine to enforce the closing of the restaurants and cafes to remain open until at least 3 o'clock on New Year's morning. Economy in the use of light is broomed.
The intrapartisan believes the announcement that the rule closing restaurants at 11:30 p.m. would be enforced New Year's eve is not entirely due to the coal question. It says the authorities reached the decision because of certain incidents which took place on Christmas eve, notably in the Place Pigalle, in the Montmartre cabaret district, where early morning workers hooted the revelers as they were leaving the cafes.
It was decided by the Ministry, the intrapartisan adds, not to risk repetition of the scenes, which the newspaper says, after the accounts published of the general indulgence in Christmas luxuries, might have more serious results.

Records Make Harvard a Favorite.

Other Factors Gave this Line of Reasoning.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

California has been a hotbed of football speculation since the Harvard-Oregon game last week.

Most of these speculations are based on the fact that the Harvard team is a powerhouse.

Good colors, good individuals, good records, good line, good back, good quarterback, good fullback, good halfback, good end, good tackle, good guard, good center, good punter, good kicker, good receiver, good passer, good blocker, good defender, good player.

RUTH HITS TRUE TO USUAL FORM.

BY A. P. MONTGOMERY.

San Diego, Dec. 28.—Babe Ruth, heavy hitter of the Boston Americans, in a game here today drove the ball 365 feet on a line from the plate for a circuit hit, sending two runners in ahead of him.

In batting practice he made a drive of 415 feet. His team, Ruth's All-Stars, defeated the San Diego shipyard team, 15 to 7.

He is in the prime shape that marked his condition on Thanksgiving, but the two Harvard players will feel the change of climate more severely. All the training in the world could not put Harvard in top condition in six days.

To all outward appearances the Cambridge players seem in perfect shape. Trained hard, accustomed to conditions, they might be unable to find a flaw in something that is new to them.

Others will doubt it. I was once among the doubters on this question, but became a convert on my return from France. This was in midwinter. The Harvard team was in the coldest part of the season, and in addition to the cold was a heavy snow on the land part of the trip.

The smiling valleys looked like the promised part of the earth, and the snow on the land part of the trip.

The Eastern and Western football champions took it easy yesterday. Oregon's experts jogged out on the field at Tuolumne Park about 1:30 and ran through just enough practice to bring out a good sweat. Their work consisted mainly in booting the ball and drifting up and down the field in semi-strenuous practice.

FACTORY BURNS AT SANTA ANA.

Loss on Stock and Building is Estimated at $50,000.

Circumstances Point to Work of Incendiaries.

Other Near-by Plants Saved by Tireless Effort.

(SANTA ANA, Dec. 28.)—Causing a loss of approximately $50,000 and throwing twenty-five people out of employment, fire this morning at 5 o'clock destroyed the manufacturing plant of the California Cattle Company and the walnut packing-house of Clarence White, located on the Santa Ana river.

Several other industrial plants nearby were greatly endangered, but were saved after a hard struggle by firemen.

These included the C. C. Collins packing-house, the Santa Ana Walnut Growers' Association packing plant, the Santa Ana Commercial Company and the Quince Packing plant.

The fire was discovered a few minutes after the night watchman made his rounds, and by the time the fire department arrived, the large wooden structure was a mass of flames.

The origin of the fire has not been discovered, and there is strong belief that it was due to incendiaries.

The California Cattle Company suffered a loss of approximately $25,000. This company has made and sold more than $25,000 of walnuts during the year, and 25,000 more of these walnuts, completed and ready to ship, were destroyed, in addition to much material in process of manufacture.

The company has also been billing orders for 25,000 dollars in walnuts, and 25,000 more of these walnuts, completed and ready to ship, were destroyed, in addition to much material in process of manufacture.

INSPECT WORK OF VOLUNTEERS.

POMONA BUSINESS MEN VISIT LOCATION OF WORK ON FLOOD CONTROL.

(POMONA, Dec. 28.)—In order to inspect the progress made by the men of San Dimas in co-operating with the county officials in flood control work in the canyon above that community, the directors of the Pomona Chamber of Commerce will visit the locality at the time of the next regular meeting of the board, three weeks from yesterday.

This decision was reached unanimously at yesterday's meeting after hearing an account of the work and results as related by Herbert S. Gilman, manager of the San Dimas Water Company. The latter, who was largely instrumental in proposing and superintending the work, was invited to appear before the board by A. B. Tate, president of the chamber.

The next meeting, it was decided, will be called at an earlier hour, so that the party will have time to make the journey to and from the canyon where work has been done.

The check dam, according to Mr. Gilman, averages in cost only $15 each, and only twenty-five of them

CATTLE MEN TRY TO UPSET PACKER CASE.

PROTEST TO PRESIDENT THROUGH MCGROGAN, AGAINST PALMER COMPROMISE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Members of twelve Western Cattle Growers' Associations have appealed to President Wilson, through former Secretary McAdoo, to upset arrangements made by Atty.-Gen. Palmer to compromise the government's anti-trust proceedings against the meat packers. John Miller, of Fort Stockton, Tex., president of the Panhandle Cattle Association, announced today.

The growers, Mr. Miller said, submitted to the President a series of changes to the effect that the compromise does not reduce their grievances, which they allege is control of stockyards markets by the packers to the disadvantage of the producers. They ask that the prosecution be taken out of the hands of the Attorney-General and that suits be brought with Francis J. Heney, former attorney for the Federal trade commission, as a special prosecutor.

According to Miller, the matter was adopted before the President last week.

"I am not taking any part in drafting the proposed law to legalize the sale of light wines and beer," Miller said during the campaign, and I have repeated it. That elected I would direct the Attorney-General to start proceedings to test the constitutionality of the prohibition amendment.

NEW YORK WILL FIGHT FOR ALE.

To Propose Measure Legalizing its Manufacture.

Bill Expected to be a Law Before January 16.

New Jersey's Governor-Elect is not to Renig.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—A bill legalizing manufacture and sale of ales and beers and sponsored, it is said, by most of the legislative leaders, will be introduced shortly after the New York State Legislature convenes on January 7.

There have been informal discussions held here in this city on the proposed legislation and it will be patterned on the 2 per cent. beer bill, introduced at the last session of the Legislature by Senator J. Henry Walters, majority leader.

This bill will be pressed for early passage and those behind it are predicting it would be law before January 16.

The proposed law would permit the manufacture of beer and its sale in hotels, restaurants and clubs in first and second-class cities, villages and towns.

Like the Walters bill of the last session, the measure will restrict the sale of beer in restaurants to a dining-room containing at least 400 square feet of floor space and having dining accommodations for at least forty guests. It will also permit the sale of beer to be taken home in grocery and other stores where bars are not maintained.

The only question left undecided is the percentage of alcohol to be prescribed. Some are for limiting it to 2 1/2 per cent. alcoholic content, while others are for not specifying the alcoholic content.

One of its backers, "held with the measure," said Edward J. New Jersey that beer is not intoxicating. Heers, exclusive of the ale, have seldom been in excess of 1 1/2 per cent. This of course, would be ignoring the section of the Volstead act which defines intoxicating any beverage containing more than 1 1/2 per cent. of alcohol. But I believe that the Legislature of the State of New York is as competent as the Congress of the United States to define what is intoxicating and what is not.

The Walters 1 per cent. beer bill was killed on the last day of the Legislature by the New York City Retail Liquor Dealers' Association. This organization, made up almost exclusively of saloonkeepers, prevailed on the Tammany delegation to withdraw their support from the measure, as it is feared the saloon and distilleries would be the sale of liquor in any place containing a bar.

One of the Legislators who listened to the saloon men at the last session, said a Tammany lawmaker today, "They were bound by my pledge to help them, as were my colleagues, so we had to withdraw our support from Senator Walters. This year I have refused to bind myself and I understand other New York legislators, Republicans and Democrats, have almost to a man done likewise."

The backers of the proposed measure declared yesterday they intend to pass the bill.

Concerning the published statement of James K. Rhinelander, president of the New Jersey Anti-Saloon League, in which he is quoted as saying it would be the effect to introduce in the New Jersey Legislature a bill to legalize the sale of light wines and beer, Governor-elect H. H. Ladd, a majority by a majority of 15,000. A majority of the Legislature is expected to pass the bill.

The thirty-one Assemblymen of Hudson, Essex, Atlantic and Passaic counties are wet. So a bill legalizing the sale of light wines and beer can be passed.

Mr. Miller said that in addition to several Texas cattle associations, similar organizations in Colorado, Oklahoma and adjoining States had joined in the presentation.

DEFENSE COUNCIL PLANS WESTERN OFFICE HERE.

Will Conduct Peace-Time Research Work on Pacific Coast Through Los Angeles Agency.

The U. S. Council of National Defense, the body which organized the industries of the nation for war and which is charged, under the act creating it, with the duty of rendering "possible in time of need the concentration and utilization of the total resources of the nation," will open western offices in Los Angeles shortly after the first of the year.

This announcement was made yesterday by D. M. Reynolds of Pasadena, who has just returned from Washington, where he has been serving for the past two years as executive assistant to Governor E. Clark, director of the council.

Mr. Reynolds expects to return to Washington after New Year's to complete certain work in connection with the President's industrial research work on the Pacific Coast.

Regarding this, Mr. Reynolds said yesterday: "Under the chairmanship of the Secretary of War, with the Secretary of the Navy as vice-chairman, and with the Secretary of the Interior as chairman of the field division, it is the council's duty to make investigations and reports to the department in Congress and to the President concerning matters of national defense.

This work is carried on under the direction of Governor E. Clark, who has been with the council since its creation, first as secretary and then as director. Even previous to the creation of the council, as such, Mr. Clark was largely instrumental with Howard Coffin, in the taking of the industrial inventory of the nation.

"In the council's work, its advisory commission plays a tremendous part, for this commission is composed of such men as Bernard Baruch, Dr. Franklin Martin, Samuel Gompers, Daniel Willard, Julius Rosenberg and Dr. H. L. Gifford. From the council during the war developed the various special agencies such as the War Industries Board, the Food Administration, etc.

"Just what the scope of the western office will be is not yet known, but the director has expressed a desire to be represented directly on the Pacific Coast.

WILL INSPECT FORT.

Gen. Liggett to Visit Fort Today; Leaves for Washington Soon.

Gen. Liggett, who has been the guest of Col. and Mrs. R. B. Ray at the Ansonia Apartments since Thursday will leave at 9 a. m. in company with Col. Ray, to inspect the coast defenses at the Harbor and pay his respects to the officers in command.

It was stated last night that the Western Department commander has received instructions from the War Department to leave for Washington, D. C., on January 5, but Gen. Liggett declined to disclose the reason for his visit to the National Capitol at a date so early in the new year.

About two hours will be spent in the inspection of Ft. MacArthur, it was stated last night.

TO ATTEND FUNERAL OF SOLDIER-BROTHER.

Gen. Young, 2933 South Flower street, secretary of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Replacement Bureau, expects to leave for Salt Lake City today, to attend the funeral of his brother, Richard W. Young, who died Saturday night.

Gen. Young was brigade commander of the 10th Cavalry, and was killed in action at the Battle of the Marston, near the mouth of the Colorado River, in the Mexican campaign.

When war was declared on Germany, Gen. Young was colonel of the 10th Cavalry, and was in the 10th Cavalry when he was killed.

Gen. Young was a native of New Jersey, and was 42 years of age, and was a member of the 10th Cavalry since 1902.

Encounter With Cow Made Acrobat Out of Her, Says Mitsi Hajos, Who Tells of Stunts on Farm to Which She Was Lured by Reading Sublimated Account of String Beans in a Seed Catalogue.

Mitsi Hajos is now an actress by main strength! She says so herself. In fact, "Hoola Over Head," in which she is to be seen at the Mason this week, is, so to speak, a play of unspoken lines.

THREE SHOT BY INFURIATED MAN.

Crazed Husband Wounds Wife and Two Others on Car.

Passenger Disarms Him After Fight on Venice Coach.

Mad Ever Since She Left Me, Wails Army Captain.

As a result of three shots fired by R. C. Potter, army captain, of 1181 East Thirty-eighth street, on a Venice train yesterday afternoon, his wife, Mrs. W. E. Potter, of the Hotel Metropole, Long Beach, O. Street, San Pedro, and Miss Barbara Williams of 514 South Grand avenue, are all in St. Catherine's Hospital, Santa Monica, suffering with bullet wounds, and Capt. Potter is held in the County Jail charged with attempted murder.

The shooting occurred on a Pacific Electric car as the train was near Culver City. Capt. Potter was disarmed by Leo Galitski, a Chicago importer of cigars, and turned over to the Venice police.

Capt. Potter asserts he shot his wife because she was riding on the car with another man.

At the County Jail last night he said he met his wife by appointment at 5:30 p. m. at the Venice train station.

"We have been separated for the past month," Capt. Potter said.

"While we were talking, a man came along and spoke to her. She told me the man was a friend of hers and that she wanted to talk to him a moment, as he was leaving town. I agreed and she said that she would meet me at my room at 2:30 o'clock. I followed her and the man and saw them get on a Venice train. I walked through the train and met her and asked where they were going. They told me Venice, and I immediately pulled out the revolver and shot at her three times. I do not know why, except that I have been mad ever since she left me."

According to persons on the train at the time of the shooting, Capt. Potter entered the coach where his wife was seated and pulled a large-caliber revolver and shot. The first bullet hit Mrs. Williams on the side of the head, inflicting a painful scalp wound. It glanced off and hit Miss Williams in the right hand, severing one finger, the bullet lodging in her wrist.

WIFE MAY DIE.

At this point Mr. Galitski, who is a member of the Chicago police reserve, grappled with Potter, and after a fight lasting some time, he took the revolver away from the crazed husband. At Culver City the Chief of Police of Venice was notified and took Potter to Venice where he was confined until the county official went after his wife.

Mrs. Potter is seriously injured and the surgeons stated that she may die. The injuries of the other two persons are not serious.

Potter will be taken to Venice this morning for his preliminary hearing. The charge against him will depend upon the extent of his wife's injuries.

Last night Potter stated he did not know who the man was that accompanied his wife.

SHOT FOR LOVE?

Capt. Potter discussed the shooting at the County Jail last night without any visible emotion. He stated and reiterated that he did not know why he had shot his wife. He declared that he loved her more than he could express, and that he supposed "it" in this love of her caused him to shoot her.

He has an army record of seven years of faithful service. He enlisted at Dayton, O., in December, 1911. He remained in the Regular Army until he attended a noncommissioned officer school at Fort Bliss, Tex., and was made a second lieutenant in the National Army. On May 18, 1917 he was appointed a captain and sent to Camp Curtis, where he served as acting major in command of the Sixth and later the Ninth Infantry, Ohio. He was discharged from the service on April 1, 1919, after he had been discharged from the army. He then went to work as a street car motorman soon after coming here, but that he had so much worry over his domestic trouble he quit that job, as he did not think his mental condition was such as to require of street-car men, then he went to work with the Goodyear people at Asot Park.

Mrs. Potter is seriously injured and the surgeons stated that she may die. The injuries of the other two persons are not serious.
